At 0430 on 21 March, the Berlin railroad komendatura asked by telephone if the 3 boxcars for Oranienburg were made available.

At 1830 on 22 March, it was learned that, in addition to the 3 mentioned boxcars, 5 boxcars were to be made available for being loaded at Werneuchen airfield.¹

2. Three 3-story apartment houses with 24 housing units for officers were to be built at Werneuchen airfield. Each housing unit was to consist of 2 rooms and a kitchen. A barracks building was also to be constructed.²

1. Comment. The information that railroad cars were available in Werneuchen for dispatch to Oranienburg seems to be connected with connection with the expected occupation of Oranienburg airfield with a bomber unit.
